The Best of Europe for women

Founded in 1971 by Simone de Beauvoir and the feminist and anti-colonialist lawyer Gisèle Halimi, Choisir la cause des femmes has been promoting, since 2005, a legislative package made up of the best existing laws in Europe for women's emancipation. This is "The most-privileged-european-woman Clause".

Choisir's volunteers, convinced that change comes collectively, went on a European tour to meet with their militant counterparts, members of feminist associations, to carry out the investigation and put together this legislative package of most satisfactory laws for women in the EU.

Today, together with you, we want to defend our rights at the highest European level, for all European women, and for those migrating within the EU.

Theme-based workshops

Come and discuss with Choisir members and guests the laws that make up the legislative set of the Best of Europe for women.

8:30am > 10:30am
Are sexual and reproductive rights in Europe at risk?
Workshop No. 1

How to legally implement the Best of Europe for women?
Workshop No. 2

11:00am > 1:00pm
How shall we fight together against patriarchal violence?
Workshop No. 3

How do women achieve economic independence in Europe?
Workshop No. 4

2:30pm > 4:30pm
How do women gain access to political power in Europe?
Workshop No. 5

How to have a family as a feminist in Europe?
Workshop No. 6

Collectively, we will draft an act to claim the best of Europe for women. This manifesto, which will also be an operational text to be implemented from the start of the next European term of office, will be submitted to European political leaders on Tuesday 5 December for their consideration.
Festive evening
Feminists from all over Europe, unite!

or how feminists will save democracy and the planet

Noteworthy speakers and militantes will talk about the impact of feminist and LGBTQI struggles and victories on democracy and ecology.

6:00am > door opening
Informal get-together. Refreshment bar + bookstore throughout the evening

7:00am> start of the evening
Testimonies and speaking out. And because the fight implies common hymns and songs, Marcela and Estelle Meyer will be there to accompany us with stories, theatre, songs and catharsis.

Estelle Meyer
Author of “Niquer la fatalité”, a fictional dialogue with Gisèle Halimi.

Marcela
She’s a gypsy, her musicians ‘gadjés’. She sings of exile, recounts her uprooting and makes her misfortunes dance with her powerful voice.

How can we turn promises into action?

We want the Best of Europe for women, now!

Together, we will be calling on politicians to make a real commitment to the Best Europe for Women.

8.30am > 12pm
Catch-up session!
For those who were unable to attend Monday’s workshops: a look back at the previous day’s feminist debates

How can we build on Ireland’s victorious battle over abortion?
How to welcome migrant women as NGOs are doing in Germany?
How can we fight for women’s freedom of movement? How can we take inspiration from the best European laws against violence on the model of Spain?

2.30pm > 6pm
Reflections on European law: a lawyer’s fiddle or a question of political courage?

How can such a project be carried out? Is it legally feasible or does it require real political will?

With our European guests, lawyers and MEPs, as well as the French Minister for Women’s Rights.
The event is translated into French and English.
